Three Village Historical Society & Setauket Neighborhood House Association's April 18th Pot Luck Supper Celebrates Community and History in the Three Village Area

Monday, April 18, 2011

6:00 p.m.: Wine, Cheese & Conversation before meeting.

6:30 p.m.: Pot Luck Supper

8:00 p.m.: Speaker

The 24th Annual Pot Luck Supper will take place on Monday, April 18th at the Setauket Neighborhood House, 95 Main Street, Setauket, NY. Community members are invited to bring their favorite covered dish for six to share with friends and neighbors. Beverages and dessert will be provided.

After dinner, guests are invited to join us as Gaynell Stone, Ph.D. presents "Dutch Shoes on Quaker Path? The Dutch and Quakers of the Three Villages." Learn about the influence of Dutch and Quaker society on the architecture, settlement patterns, cemeteries and grave stones of the Three Village area. Dr. Stone is Director of the Suffolk County Archaeological Association (SCAA) and its educational programs. Her doctoral dissertation at Stony Brook University utilized the colonial gravestones of Long Island as data for an archaeological analysis of our 18th century multi-cultural society.
