RE-PURPOSE

Thanks to the extraordinary generosity of our community and the support of partners including the Robert David Lion Gardiner Foundation, former Assemblyman Steven Englebright, Suffolk County, Assemblywoman Rebecca Kassay, local businesses, and individual donors, the Dominick-Crawford Barn has been carefully relocated, stabilized, and is now well into construction.

Together, these investments have brought us to the final phase of this transformational project. While rising construction costs have increased the overall cost to complete the center, the finish line is in sight. With your support, we can open the doors to a vibrant new home for history, education, and community for generations to come.

THE DOMINICK-CRAWFORD BARN

EDUCATION AND HISTORY CENTER

For more than six decades, the Three Village Historical Society + Museum has connected our community to the people, places, and stories that shaped our region. By preserving and repurposing the historic c.1840 Dominick-Crawford Barn as the Dominick-Crawford Barn Education & History Center, we are creating a lasting legacy for future generations.

This fully ADA-accessible facility will dramatically expand opportunities for education, exhibitions, cultural programming, and community gatherings, ensuring that everyone has the opportunity to discover, experience, and be inspired by our shared history.

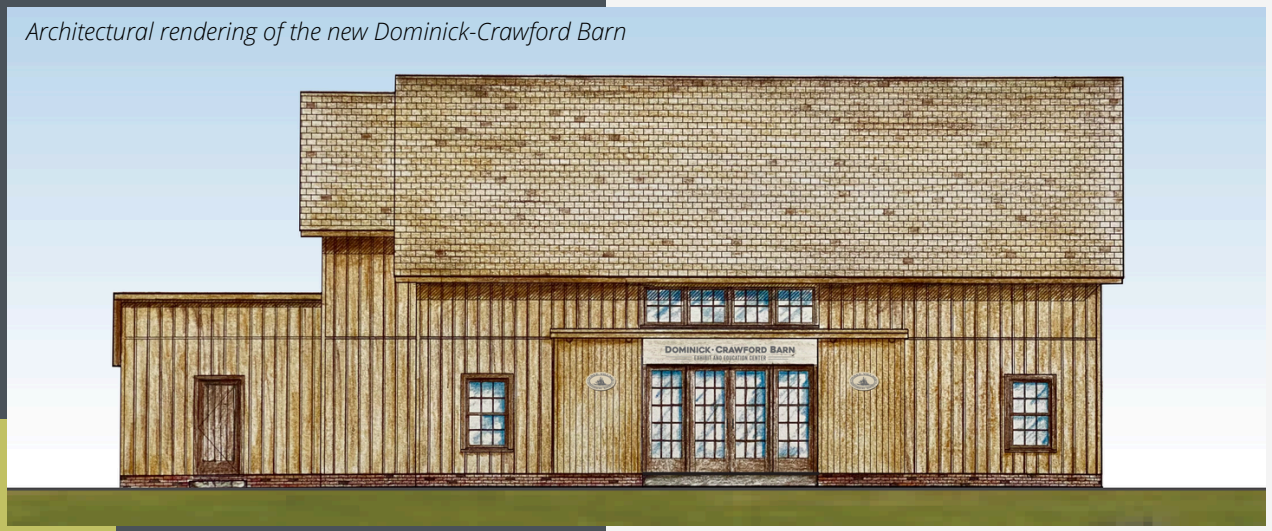

PRESERVING OUR SHARED HISTORY

At the Three Village Historical Society + Museum, we are dedicated to preserving and sharing the rich history of our community - from its Indigenous roots and Revolutionary War stories to its maritime, agricultural, artistic, and industrial heritage.

To ensure these stories continue to inspire future generations, we rescued the c.1840 Dominick-Crawford Barn from demolition and are transforming it into a new Education & History Center.

Due to rising construction costs and delays, the total project cost has grown to $1.3 million. Every donation goes directly toward completing this important community resource.
